

Label Location

A white, rectangular object with rounded edges and a slightly raised top section. It is positioned on a light gray surface. A ruler is placed horizontally in front of the object, and another ruler is placed diagonally to the left. The object has a small, faint label on its front face, which is highlighted by a white rectangular box with the text "Label Location".